

What is a code word?

In the event we are on the phone with you and are unsure if it is really you we are speaking with, we may ask “what is your code word?” in order to verify that it is, in fact, you on the phone.”

We recommend your code word be something you can easily remember, but someone else could not easily guess.

