

Who Can Join East River Federal Credit Union?

You're eligible to become a member of East River Federal Credit Union if you meet any of the following requirements:

Community Eligibility

- Lake County, South Dakota: Individuals who live, work, worship, or attend school in Lake County, as well as businesses and legal entities located here.
- Miner County, South Dakota: Individuals who live, work, worship, or attend school in Miner County, as well as businesses and legal entities located here.

Family Eligibility

Immediate family members of current or potential members are also eligible. This includes:

- Spouse
- Children
- Parents
- Siblings
- Grandparents
- Adoptive parents, children, siblings, and grandparents

Once a Member, always a Member.

Membership is for life—no matter where life takes you. Even if you move, change jobs, or retire, you'll continue to enjoy full access to all the benefits of membership, as long as you maintain your minimum share (savings) account balance.