Requirement for Membership at Coast Guard Employees Credit Union

Thank you for your interest in becoming a member of our credit union. In accordance with the Federal Credit Union Act, (Chapter 14 of Title 12 of the United States Code as revised April 2013) § 1759 Membership “Limits the field of membership for a credit union.” As a state charter credit union, the Louisiana State Revised Statutes 6:645 Membership “The field of membership for a credit union is limited.”

Thus, the established Field of Membership (FOM) of the Coast Guard Employees Credit Union (CGECU) as per the Bylaws is described as:

Civilian employees of the United States Coast Guard (USCG), retired civilian employees of the USCG, USCG active duty military, USCG retired military, USCG reserve military, USCG retired reservist and USCG auxiliary, organizations of such employees, military and retired personal of the USCG, members of their immediate families and members of the organizations.

Further that immediate family member is described as:

Members of their immediate families include any relative by blood or marriage, or foster and adopted children, grandchildren, sons-in-law and daughter-in-law of a member.

Why become of member of the Coast Guard Employees Credit Union?

- We have consistently paid higher returns on savings than the national average.
- Our interest rates for loans is competitive and within reason.
- We have always been there for both our members and non-members to assist in hard financial times.
